

EU-Ukraine Solidarity Lanes –

Lifeline for Ukrainian economy, key for global food security

12 November 2022

Ukraine is a top global exporter of cereals

With the Black Sea route closed by the Russian aggression, 20 million tonnes of grain were trapped in Ukraine before the summer, ahead of new harvest

Commission launched Solidarity Lanes Action Plan in May 2022 to establish alternative logistics routes

Key short term actions:

- Mobilising additional rolling stocks, vessels, lorries
- Improving capacity of transport networks and transshipment terminals
- Speeding up customs operations and other inspections
- Working on storage of goods on EU territory
- Repairing existing infrastructure

Up to now, Solidarity Lanes have allowed to:

- Export over 15 million tonnes of grain, oilseeds and related products from Ukraine

ENABLED EXPORTS OF OVER 60%
OF UKRAINE'S GRAIN
SINCE THE START OF THE WAR

TOTAL OF
≈ 25 MILLION TONNES (MT)
WITH BLACK SEA EXPORTS

- Export over 15 million tonnes of non-agricultural products from Ukraine (ores, iron and steel, earths, wood)
- Generate over 15 billion euro for Ukrainian farmers and businesses

SOLIDARITY LANES ARE TODAY:

- CRUCIAL FOR EXPORTS OF UKRAINIAN AGRICULTURAL GOODS
- ONLY OPTION FOR EXPORT OF OTHER UKRAINIAN GOODS
- ONLY OPTION FOR UKRAINE TO IMPORT ALL THE GOODS IT NEEDS (FUEL, HUMANITARIAN AID)
